SEPTEMBER 2022

TRTC IS LOOKING FOR BOOK DONATIONS FOR UPCOMING BOOK SALE

The Turtle River Trails Committee is looking for gently used books and DVD's for their upcoming Book Sale happening Friday and Saturday of the Hoof N Holler Weekend! Please drop off at the Recreation Centre lobby, Monday-Friday 8:00-4:30pm. No encyclopedias please.

PAINTNIGHT IN RORKETON WITH LOCAL ARTIST!

The Lawrence Recreation are thrilled to host a cheese, wine and paint night with local artist Shirley Tedder. Shirley has won many awards for her art work and she joined the Lawrence Recreation Committee with her partner, also an artist, Pat Burke, just this past March. We are so excited to have such talent on our Team to be able to host a variety of artsy programming. It will be $30 per person. The bar will be open and snacks provided. We are painting a pumpkin, just in time for the season. Stay tuned for dates and times.

MCLENNAN PARK CAMPING—OCHRE RIVER

Ochre River Rec are thrilled to have power in the picnic shelter at McLennan Park and the new overnight camping fees are $10.00 per night and can be made payable to the RM of Lakeshore or via e-transfer. McLennan Park also has beach volleyball court, fire pits and a porta-potty available on site.

THE WITTY BELGIAN ARCHERS TOURNAMENT & BEER GARDENS!

The local Archery club in Ste Rose "The Witty Belgians" will be hosting a archery tournament on Sunday September 11th at 11:30 at Burnside Park! The Turtle River Trails Committee members will be hosting beer gardens from 11-5pm and Chaddy Baby Food Truck and Candy's Cold Treats will be there too. This should be a wonderful afternoon with family, friends from and participants from Belgium and Netherlands -Come check out some pole Archery in Ste Rose!

OCHRE RIVER PANCAKE BREAKFAST, BALL GAMES, COMMUNITY YARD & CRAFT SALE SEPTEMBER 10th

Ochre River Rec, Ochre River Parent Advisory Council/School and Ochre River Fire Department are happy to host a few community events on September 10th. ORFD will be hosting a pancake breakfast from 8:00-10:00am at the Fire station. The school will host a ball tournament and PAC will run the concession stand from 11:30-6:00. Ochre River Rec is hosting a Community Yard and indoor craft sale from 10:00-4:00pm at the Community Hall. If you would like your name added to the community yard sale map for $10, or to be a vendor at our craft sale for $25, please contact recdirector@rmoflakeshore.ca. Maps and vendor lists will then be available on-line on our Facebook Page "Lakeshore & Ste Rose Recreation" and to hand out and view at the event. We hope to see you out in Ochre River on Saturday September 10th!

HOOF N' HOLLER!!!

It's that time of year again—Ste Rose Hoof N Holler is once again being hosted in the Recreation Facilities on Maillard St. in Ste Rose on Thanksgiving weekend! A new book event hosted together with the Turtle River Trails committee on Friday, Fireworks and a Pumpkin contest winner announcement. They have 6 queens this year, supporting many great local causes. Stay tuned for ALL updates and their full weekend schedule on their Facebook Page "Ste Rose Hoof N' Holler Days"

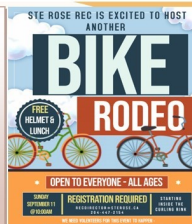

UPCOMING FARMERS MARKET—IN STE ROSE

Ste Rose Recreation continues the annual Farmers Markets on Thursday September 1st and 8th. If you would like to be a vendor for these sales, please contact recdirector@sterose.ca or call 204-447-2154 and leave a message, or text 204-648-4797. We may extend one week depending on crops.
